

I value obtaining Internet service from an independent ISP such as Sonic.net, and BellSouth's request would badly affect me as a consumer with regards to my available choice of Internet Service for broadband.

I believe in competition not in monopolistic ISP.